

Welcome to Rapsodo

Welcome!

We are delighted to have you here with us.

With a mission to give athletes the tools they need to play like never before, Rapsodo's transformative technology is changing the face of sports tech and setting a new gold standard across the world.

Powered by Athletes who get it, and Engineers who can do it.

Passion, Vision, Drive – these are the qualities that have made Rapsodo a leader in sports vision technology. Rapsodo's diverse and unique backgrounds and points of view come together working towards the same goal – One Team, One Vision.

We are very excited you have decided to join us and look forward to journeying with you during your time here.

Wishing you the best of luck and welcome to the team.

Warm regards,

Team Rapsodo

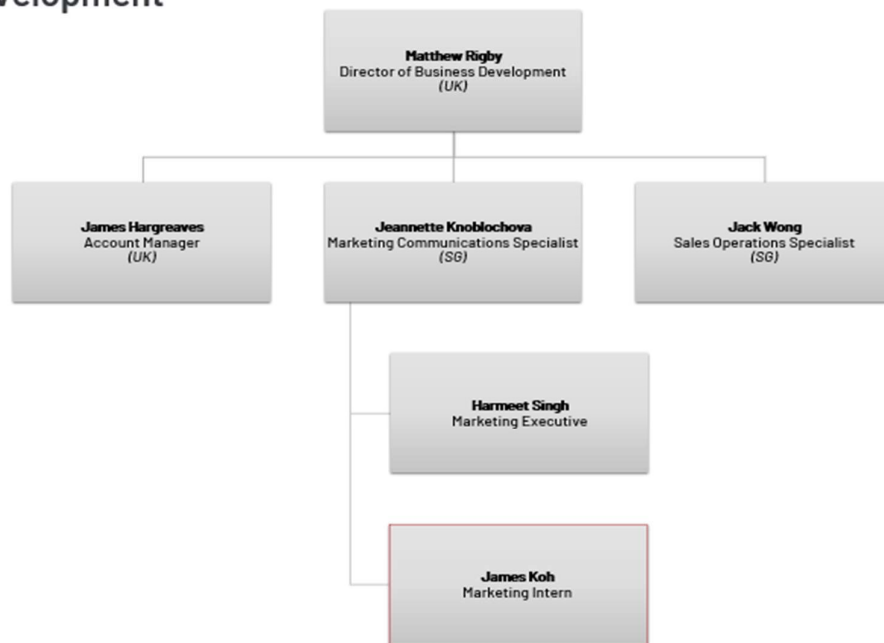

Rapsodo's Guiding Principles

At Rapsodo, our core principles serve as the foundation of our identity. By aligning your actions with our core values, you contribute not only to your personal growth but also to the collective success of our dynamic, diverse and forward-thinking community.

1. Customer Focus – Prioritize understanding the customer's needs and wants, and perfect their experience. We need to deliver a great experience and high quality.
2. Achieve more with Less – Be creative and resourceful in solving problems while keeping costs down. Optimize resources. Reduce wastage.
3. Fail Fast, Learn Fast – Experiment and take risks, learn from failures quickly and cheaply, and adjust course as needed.
4. Sports Team Mentality – Be accountable to yourself and your team, be a team player and prioritize performance.
